Income-tax Act, 2025 - Section 63: Audit of accounts (demonstration extract, tax year 2026-2

63(1). Every person carrying on business shall get the accounts of the tax year audited by an accountant before the specified date, if the total sales, turnover or gross receipts in business exceed one crore rupees in the tax year:
Provided that where the aggregate of amounts received in cash does not exceed five per cent of total receipts, and the aggregate of payments made in cash does not exceed five per cent of total payments, this sub-section shall have effect as if for the words 'one crore rupees', the words 'ten crore rupees' had been substituted.

63(2). Every person carrying on profession shall get the accounts of the tax year audited if gross receipts in the profession exceed fifty lakh rupees in the tax year.

Mapping note: Income-tax Act, 1961 section 44AB corresponds to Income-tax Act, 2025 section 63. The 2025 Act replaces 'previous year' and 'assessment year' with the single defined term 'tax year' and applies from tax year 2026-27 (returns filed from July 2027).
